Lyrics

The Lord said to Noah,
There's gonna be a floody, floody
Lord said to Noah,
There's gonna be a floody floody.
Get those animals out of the muddy muddy
Children of the Lord.

chorus:

*So rise and shine and give God the glory glory
Rise and shine and give God the glory glory
Rise and shine and give God the glory glory
Children of the Lord.*

So Noah, he built him,
He built him an arky arky,
So Noah, he built him,
He built him an arky arky,
Built it out of hick'ry barky barky,
Children of the Lord.

chorus

The animals, they came in,
They came in by twosies twosies
The animals, they came in,
They came in by twosies twosies
Elephants and kangaroosies 'roosies,
Children of the Lord.

chorus

It rained and rained for
Forty daysies daysies
It rained and rained for
Forty daysies daysies
Drove those animals nearly crazy crazy
Children of the Lord.

The sun came out,
And dried up the landy landy
The sun came out,
And dried up the landy landy
Everything was fine and dandy dandy
Children of the Lord.

The animals they went out
Went out by threesies threesies
The animals they went out
Went out by threesies threesies
Must have learned 'bout birds and beesies beesies
Children of the Lord.

This is the end of
The end of my story story
This is the end of
The end of my story story
Everything is hunky-dory dory
Children of the Lord.

History and Origin

Rise and Shine and Give God the Glory, Glory is a fun song that children of all ages love to sing! Tells of the great flood, with Noah and the animals. This is a traditional favorite for many campfires and Vacation Bible Schools. It appears in hymnals such as, Complete Anglican Hymns Old and New #883, Sing With Me #66, and Worship in Song #23. Was also recorded and released in 1993 by Cedermont Kids. It was also recorded by Pete Seeger, "Children of the Lord" (on PeteSeeger11). The author is unknown and the earliest date on record is 1874 found in Dett, pp. 198-199, "Rise an' Shine" (1 text, 1 tune; pp. 212-213 in the 1874 edition). It has a Roud #11968.

DESCRIPTION: "God said to Noah, there's gonna be a floody, floody.... (So) Rise and shine and give God the glory, glory... Children of the Lord." Noah builds the ark; the animals arrive, including elephants and kangaroos; it rains; it dries up; everything is normal again. Praise God for saving the world by getting up early (Rise) and doing His work (Shine).
